COMMENTARY

1. Interim Board ceased to exist in Haryana on 1.11.66: — On the enforcement of Punjab Re-organisation Act, the Interim Board of Ayurvedic and Unani Medicine constituted under 3 (6) of the Punjab Ayurvedic and Unani Practitioner’s Act ceased to function. A petition filed under Article 226 by a vaid of Haryana State without questioning the validity of the Haryana Act 5 of 1968 was held to be not maintainable and the constitution of another interim Board upheld. Kartar Singh v. U.O.I., AIR 1969 Pb. 287.

2. Legal right to be established: — Before a vaid can challenge the constitution of a Board he must establish his locus standi and he must indicate as to which of his rights has been infringed. Failure to do so would non-suit him. Kartar Singh v. U.O.I., AIR 1969 Pb. 287.

3. Interim Board is not an Inter-State Body: — An interim Board which continued into existence after the coming into force of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 is not an inter State Corporate Body under the provisions of Re-organisation Act. Kartar Singh v. U.O.I., AIR 1969 Pb. 287.

SECTIONS 5—6

Provided that an outgoing member shall continue in office until the election or appointment of his successor, as the case may be.

(2) The outgoing member shall be eligible for re-election or re-appointment.

6. Vacancies: — (1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Board through death, resignation, removal or disability of such member or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as is provided in section 3.

2. Substituted and shall be deemed always to have been substituted by Haryana Act, 27 of 1986
(2) Any person elected or appointed to fill the vacancy shall, notwithstanding anything in section 5, hold office only so long as the member in whose place he is elected or appointed would have held office if the vacancy had not occurred.

7. Resignation:— Any member of the Board may at any time resign his office by letter addressed to the Chairman and the resignation shall take effect from the date on which it is accepted by him.

8. Disabilities for continuing as member:— If, in the opinion of the Board, any member of the Board absents himself without sufficient cause from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the Board or becomes subject to any of the disqualifications specified in section 9, the Board shall declare his office to be vacant:—

Provided that before declaring his office to be vacant, the Board shall call for his explanation and record its decision thereon.

*8-A Power to remove members:— The State Government may, by notification remove any member who, in its opinion, has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties, provided that before the State Government notifies the removal of any member the reasons for his proposed removal shall be communicated to him and he shall be given an opportunity of tendering an explanation in writing which shall be duly considered.]

(c) of any defect or irregularity in such Act or proceeding, not affecting the merits of the case.

(3) All employees of the Board, including the registrar, shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

COMMENTARY

Reversion when post abolished:— Under the service conditions of an employee officiating in a permanent post of Assistant Director (Unani) the appointment is terminable on one month's notice and on the abolition of the post the employee is reverted to his substantive rank. Such a reversion can not be challenged on the ground that it violates rule 9 of the Punjab Ayurvedic Department Class I & II (Service) rules. 1963. 1968 SLR. 752.

It was further observed that under the conditions of employment the question of the employee completing probation would not arise.

The question arose as to whether preferential qualifications can be made applicable while selecting candidates. It was held that this would not violate article 16 of the Constitution. This decision was given while interpreting Punjab Ayurvedic Department Class III (Technical Service Rules, 1974 (1) S.L.R. 453.

COMMENTARY

Requirement to lay down the rules before the Legislature is not mandatory:— The question arose as to whether the failur to lay the rules before the legislature would invalidate the rules or not. It was held by a Full Bench in Megha Singh & Co. v. State, AIR 1977 P & H 297 that this infirmity will not invalidate the rules. Reliance was placed on a Supreme Court decision in Jag Mohd. v. State of Gujarat, AIR 1966 SC 385, where in the Supreme Court did not pronounce the rules to be ineffective simply because there was failure to place the rules before the Houses of the State Legislature. In this connection reference may also be made to

In this connection reference may be made to the case reported as Regin v. Immigration Appeals Tribunal which was quoted by the Full Bench in Mehga Singh & Co v. State AIR 1977 P & H 299 [at page 304 (para No. 16)] Mr. Justice O. Chinnappa Reddy (now Judge, Supreme Court of India) who delivered the judgment of the Full Bench observed as under:—

"Recently, in Regin v. Immigration Appeals Tribunal the question arose whether certain immigration rules had been laid before Parliament as required by the Immigration Appeals Act. The Lord Chief Justice of England and two of his companion Judges went into the matter and on the evidence held that there was compliance with the requirement regarding laying. The question was not brushed aside on the ground that non-laying was of no consequence. In a case which came before the Court of Error of Barbados, Collymore, C.J. was reported by Megarry to have said:—

"Where the Legislature delegates its law-making power to a subordinate authority and reserves the right to review the regulations made by such subordinate body and if necessary to disallow them and attaches conditions to secure that it shall have the opportunity to exercise its power of review as the supreme legislative authority such conditions are mandatory."
